

Congratulations to our winners of the 2016 LSVT Global Small Student Grant Competitions!

These grants are providing seed funding to speech, physical and occupational therapy graduate students (including post-doctoral trainees) who will be completing behavioral treatment studies with neurologically impaired patients. Two $1500 grants each for PT, OT, and SLP have been awarded.

Speech Therapy

Mireille Gaynor
SLP Graduate Student
Sacred Heart University

"The effects of LSVT on speech, affect, and social communication in children with Autism Spectrum Disorders."

S. Katherine Pensa
SLP Graduate Student
University of South
Carolina

"Improving single-word production using a game-based computerized approach: Single-subject training studies"

Physical Therapy

Lori Hochman, DPT
PhD Student
Nova Southeastern
University

"Effects of Functional Electrical Stimulation Cycling versus Cycling Only on Walking Performance and Quality of Life in Individuals with Multiple Sclerosis: A Pilot Study"

Kalli Rafferty
DPT student
Northern Illinois
University

"Augmented Reality Exercise in those with Parkinson's Disease: A Pilot Study"

Occupational Therapy

Paige Bernat
MOT Student
University of Missouri-
Columbia

"Using Occupation Based Measures to Determine the Effect of LSVT BIG® on Occupational Performance"

Kimberly Hreha,
MS, OTR/L EdD Candidate
Movement Science and Occupational Therapy at Teachers College, Columbia
University

"Effectiveness of using Prism Adaptation to Treat Spatial Neglect and Motor Function in Stroke Survivors with Multiple Lesions"